—S. R. Neilson is here this week from Mt. Pleasant looking after his business interests in this part of the country.

—D. D. Houts, attorney for the United States Fuel company, was transacting business Tuesday before the county school board.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Gibson of Storre were here last Monday to see about placing their children in the Carlton county high school.

—Dr. E. M. Nelson and William Edmunds were down from Castle Gate Wednesday on business, having come down in the doctor's new Buick.

—Miss Edna Eisenhardt, one of the Price teachers who has spent her vacation at her home in St. Louis, arrived in Price on Wednesday evening last.

—C. H. Coffey of Helper was transacting business at the county seat the first of the week.

—Miss Belle Fitzgerald has returned to St. Mary's academy at Salt Lake City and from which she will graduate this year.

—A. M. Eliot of Concordia, Kan., arrived in Price the first of the week and has taken a position with the Golden Rule.

—Miss Grace Davis, who has been giving dancing lessons in this city for some time, has returned to her home at Salt Lake City.

—County Surveyor Forrester was down from Salt Lake City this week, going and coming from the first aid meet at Hiawatha Monday last.

—Mrs. Barbara Forrester went to Salt Lake City the first of the week with three of the Forrester children who are to attend St. Mary's academy.

—W. H. Pace returned the first of the week from Millard county and Salt Lake City. He has the agency in Millard county for the Ford machine.

—Henry Jagger has resigned his position as storekeeper, and will leave the 15th for the University of Utah to finish his law course.—Helper Times, 4th.

—Miss Ethel Williams, teacher in the Price public schools, returned Monday from her home in Missouri where she spent a most enjoyable summer.

—Henry Thompson, district game warden of the fourth district, was in Price Wednesday on his way to his home at Ferron from Grand and San Juan counties where he had been with a consignment of forty thousand native trout which were recently planted in the streams of those two counties.

—M. V. B. Good and W. A. Thayn were up from Wellington Monday doing some trading with the merchants here. Crisp down that way, say both gentlemen, are the very best ever. Much interest is being taken locally in the Carlton Emory fair and there will be some excellent exhibits.

—Heber J. Stowell was down from Helper last Saturday. He has recently taken up a homestead of a hundred and sixty acres on Gordon Creek near where the Utah railway tracks cross Gordon Creek. Others are thinking of doing likewise, in which event a reservoir location will be made somewhere on Beaver Creek and water turned to the lands.

—Bert Happen went to Salt Lake City last Monday, where he will spend a week or ten days "working out" with Blankenship's Boys in the Pacific Coast League. While Manager Blankenship is dead anxious to have Happen sign a Salt Lake City contract, the local twirler does not feel that he is yet quite ripe enough for Coast league ball, and he is in there now merely for the experience that he can gain.—Helper Times, 4th.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Beebe have moved to Salina and expect to make that city their permanent home.

—J. M. Millard was in town this week for merchandise for his Allonah store on the former Clifton reservation. He came by way of Willow Creek and states that the roads for the most part are in good shape, the best, in fact, he has ever seen them. His section of the country has suffered some for the want of moisture, but generally speaking the crops have not greatly suffered for rain.

—Mrs. Lillian Martin of Rock Rapids, Ia., arrived in Price last Saturday from McGill, Nev., on her way to Black Hawk, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ruth Martin, who will teach there the ensuing term. While in Price they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McMillan, who formerly lived in Rock Rapids. Mrs. Martin is the mother of Miss Fay Martin, who taught at Price a considerable time.

—J. C. Treadle, postmaster at Sunerville, was a Sunday visitor in Price on his way to Green River to visit his daughter, Mrs. W. B. McCloud, whose marriage is to be held Saturday. The miners are working every day now," said he, "but for the first time in many months the coke ovens shut down today (Sunday). This is no doubt owing to the scarcity of railroad cars, the company preferring to have the ovens remain idle to storing the coke at the camp."

—E. J. Carpenter, president of the United States Fuel company, came down from Salt Lake City Saturday to present the first aid contest between teams of the mines under his control. He was at the three camps over south until yesterday, when he returned to Zion. He states that the coal trade generally is picking up to a considerable extent, and he looks for a winter of good demand for everything that is mined by his company.

—Misses May Older, Maxine and Emma Allen entertained at the older home on Wednesday evening complimentary to Miss Vesta Ferry and Miss Owen, who will both leave the first of the week to attend school at Price academy. Also Emma Allen, who returns to the Ogden high school next week. The young ladies assisting the hostess in the evening's entertainment and in serving watermelon, cake and lemonade were Misses May Green, Addie Parker, Eva Baker, Georgia Shepard and Vesta Ferry.—Truman Leader, 2d.

—Misses May Older, Maxine and Emma Allen entertained at the older home on Wednesday evening complimentary to Miss Vesta Ferry and Miss Owen, who will both leave the first of the week to attend school at Price academy. —In addition to this the Emery commissioners have guaranteed to pay the expenses of all exhibitors in bringing here what they have to display at the fair. It is expected this will run around four hundred dollars, and is a big item towards the success of the meeting. Commissioner Gillette of Green River is deserving of much commendation for what he has done and is doing.

To a representative of The Sun President Horsley states that every person he saw on the trip is enthusiastic about the fair, and all are working with but one end in view, and that is to make the third annual meeting the very best held. Emery county will have good exhibits in every department.

None Equal to Chamberlain's.

I have tried most all the cough cures and find that there is none equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has never failed to give me prompt relief," writes W. V. Harner, Montpelier, Ind. When you have a cold give this remedy a trial and see for yourself what a splendid medicine it is. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

MUNICIPAL PLANT WORKING

Green River Now One of Best Lighted Cities Anywhere.

GREEN RIVER, Sept. 5.—The citizens of this city last night rejoiced and celebrated their victory, after a long struggle of nearly five years of continuous effort upon the part of the city government to work out ways and means of a successful lighting system. Several franchises for lights had been asked for, but always met opposition. At last the citizens joined hands and every available means was brought into play so that the city could own and operate its own light system. At last their efforts have been crowned with success. It was announced last Wednesday that the big transformer had come, and the lights would be turned on at 8 o'clock Saturday.

Several hundred people were on Broadway last night, waiting for Mayor Charles McPherson to push the button that would light the whole city. Every electrician was used and
